MEDIA ADVISORY**

Looking for a new career?
The United States Secret Service is looking for you.

JACKSONVILLE – Choosing the right career is an important decision. Both the position and the candidate must be a right “fit.”

Currently, the United States Secret Service is recruiting applicants in the Jacksonville area for the Secret Service Uniformed Division. Officers in the Uniformed Division are responsible for protecting the President and Vice President of the United States, as well as visiting world leaders. Because these officers perform a variety of law enforcement related duties, the position demands integrity, a great work ethic and an appreciation for teamwork.

To meet potential applicants, the Secret Service will host a job fair on Saturday, April 13th at the Radisson Riverwalk Hotel. Secret Service personnel will be available to discuss all aspects of the application and hiring process. Additional information on the Secret Service and the Uniformed Division is available on the Internet at <http://www.secretservice.gov>.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Advance interviews regarding the Jacksonville job fair are available and any assistance in making the event known to potential applicants and members of the public would be appreciated.
