INSPECTOR GENERAL

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

OIG-CA-19-009

Mick Mulvaney, Director
Office of Management and Budget
725 17th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20503

The Honorable Mick Mulvaney:

In accordance with the Government Charge Card Abuse Prevention Act of 2012 (Public Law 112-194) and the Office of Management and Budget Memorandum M-13-21, Implementation of the Government Charge Card Abuse Prevention Act of 2012, I am providing my annual report on the progress of implementation of any charge card related audit recommendations issued by my office.

In fiscal year 2018, my office issued one audit report on the Department of the Treasury's (Treasury) charge card use within its Office of Financial Research (OFR) titled: Treasury OIG Review of the Office of Financial Research's Government Purchase Card Program (OIG-18-038, February 8, 2018). This report identified two findings related to OFR purchase cardholders making split purchases and OFR's purchase card files not meeting documentation requirements. As a result, my office made seven recommendations. According to the Joint Audit Management Enterprise System (JAMES) used to track audit recommendations, OFR management reported that it implemented 4 of the 7 recommendations and plan to fully implement the following 3 open recommendations by August 2019:

- when approving official duties are transferred from Treasury Departmental Offices to OFR employees in 2018, develop and implement a policy to require OFR approving officials to review purchase card transactions for potential split purchases on a monthly basis;
- ensure a review of purchase cardholders' files to ensure all documents required by policy and procedures are included in the files; and
- develop and implement a policy for storing and maintaining Government purchase card transaction documentation in a centralized location.

We will follow up on the status of these open recommendations as part of our Semiannual Report to Congress as of March 31 and September 30, 2019.

In addition, my office is currently performing an audit of charge card activities of Treasury's Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. Please note, my office does not have oversight over the Internal Revenue Service and the Troubled Asset Relief Program. Those entities are under the respective jurisdictional oversight of the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration and the Special Inspector General for the Troubled Asset Relief Program.

If you have any questions, please contact me at 202-622-1090 or Deborah L. Harker, Assistant Inspector General for Audit, at 202-927-5400.

Sincerely,
