2. Duties. The owner desires to establish, by this instrument, certain rights and duties for his own benefit and for the mutual benefit of all future owners of occupants of the property or any part thereof. The owner intends that all future owners, occupants, mortgagees, and any other persons hereinafter acquiring any interest in the property hold their interest subject to the duties and with the rights, easements and privileges herein created.

3. Definitions. As used herein, unless the context otherwise requires:

   (a) "Association" means an organization composed of all of the owners of property known as Coopertown Farms as described above.

   (b) "Property" shall mean and refer to that certain real property hereinabove described, and such additions thereto as may hereinafter be brought within the jurisdiction of the Association.

   (c) "Owner" shall mean and refer to the record owner, whether one or more persons or entities, of the fee simple title to any Lot the mortgagee shall not mean or refer to the mortgagee unless and until such mortgagee has acquired title pursuant to foreclosure or any preceding in lieu of foreclosure. An Owner shall have the right, but not the obligation, to transfer to his tenants actually residing in any Lot all of his rights and obligations under this Declaration; provided that any such assignment shall not relieve the owner of his obligation to pay the assessments provided for herein, and provided further that any such assignment shall be valid only if incorporated into a written Lease agreement and shall be effective only so long as such Lease is in force and effect.

   (d) "Roadway(s)" shall be the property owned and maintained by Coopertown Farms Homeowners' Association as shown private roads on Coopertown Farms Plat (see attached plat).

   (e) "Majority" or "Majority of the Lot Owners" means the owners of more than 15 of the lots comprising the property described above as Coopertown Farms.

4. Association of Property Owners. All of the Owners of Lots shall be members of an association known as the "COOPERTOWN FARMS HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION", which shall be the governing body for the maintenance, repair, reconstruction, and utilization of the roads and for the enforcement of the restrictions herein contained. The owners of a single lot shall collectively have one vote, and the Association shall be governed by the 15 votes of its constituent property owners, or their successors or assigns. By-Laws are created herein. The Association may adopt other By-Laws. The Association may be abolished at any time by the unanimous vote of all property owners, after all of developer's lots are sold, or with the consent of the developer.

5. Ownership of Common Elements. The Association shall have the right and duty to maintain all improvements on the land upon which the road described rests and shall have the right to remove improvements upon improvement. Each Lot Owner retains, for the use of himself and his successors and assigns and his or their invitees, the right to use the entire roadway, described, for ingress and egress in perpetuity and grants to the other Lot Owners and their invitees, successors and assigns a similar right in perpetuity. They all offer title to the land, to Davidson County to maintain a public road on the land, subject to there being no cost to the Association.

6. Use of Common Elements. Each Lot Owner shall have the right to use the roadway for ingress and egress to convey utilities to their lot subject to the reasonable regulation and management by the Association.

7. Expenses.

(a) Common Expenses. The owners of each lot, including the developers, shall pay (for each lot owned) $50.00 annually, beginning June 1, 1994, payable to Coopertown Farms Homeowners' Association to share the expense of the Association including the costs of administration and maintenance of the road located thereon, and in addition thereto shall pay any special charge to their lot for violations of this agreement or for costs of collection. After such time as the developer has sold 15 or more lots, the annual association fee, due on June 1, shall increase to $100.00. The expense of maintaining utilities located on the road shall be borne by the owners of lots served by the utility. The developer shall not have any responsibility for the maintenance, repair or replacement of any part of the road or easement after the date the roads are completed. Payment of common expenses, shall be in such amounts and at such times as determined by the Association, other than the annual fee. No 1 of Owner shall be exempt for payment of his proportionate share of the common expenses by waiver or non-use of the common elements or by abandonment of his lot, a pro-rata portion of all expenses of the Association shall be a lien upon each lot from the time each expense becomes a legal obligation of the Association. If any Lot Owner fails or refuses to pay as billed by the Association for the common expenses within thirty days, the amount due shall bear interest at the rate of 10% per annum, or such greater percentage as may then be permitted under the laws of the State of Tennessee. The interest and debt and special charges shall all constitute a lien on the property of the Lot Owner.

(b) Enforcement of Lien. FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION of the agreement of the other owners who are parties to this agreement, and to secure the payment of the common expenses, interest, and attorney fees, a lien is expressly retained by the Association of each and every lot. The lien may be enforced in any court in Davidson County by the Association. The court shall have the power to sell the lot of the delinquent owners to pay all sums due the Association by the owners and to enforce the lien.

8. Mortgages and Deeds of Trust. Each Lot Owner shall have the right to make separate mortgages and deed of trusts for his lot.

9. Subordination of the Lien to Mortgages. The lien of the assessments provided for herein shall be subordinate to the lien of any first mortgage. Sale or transfer of any Unit shall not affect the assessment lien. The sale or transfer of any lot pursuant to mortgage foreclosure or any proceeding in lieu thereof, however, shall extinguish the lien of such assessments as to payments which become due prior to such sale or transfer. No sale or transfer shall relieve such lot from liability for any assessments thereafter becoming due or from the lien thereof.

10. Separate Real Estate Taxes. Real estate taxes shall be separately taxed to each Lot Owner for his lot. Coopertown Farms Homeowners' Association to be taxed for roadways.

11. Maintenance, Repairs and Replacements. Each Lot Owner, at his own expense, shall be responsible for all maintenance, repairs, moving and replacements of his own lot. Each Lot Owner shall maintain and mow the right-of-way up to the actual road in front of his lot. The Association shall be responsible for repairs on roadway only. The Association shall have absolute discretion concerning the level of maintenance of the right-of-way and to regulate improvements or alterations.
12. Transfer of a Lot-Notice to Association.

   (a) Unrestricted Transfers. A Lot Owner may, without restriction under this agreement, sell, give, devise, lease or otherwise transfer his lot, or any interest therein, to any person. Notice of the sale shall be given to the Association together with the names of the new Lot Owners.

13. Use, Occupancy and Building Restrictions.

   (a) The lots shall be used for single family residential uses only.

   (b) No Lot Owner shall cut trees, having a diameter of 4 inches or more, on more than one acre of the Land in a lot. Moreover, except for the one acre area, no owner shall cut trees within 25 feet of a boundary line. Violation of this restriction shall subject the Property owners to pay liquidated damages to the Association in the amount of $100.00 per tree and all cost of surveys to determine that this provision has been violated. The Association shall pay the cost of the survey if it is determined that the Lot Owner did not violate this provision. The Lot Owners hereby grant free access to the Association for the purpose of investigating for violation of any obligation created by this agreement.

   (c) No automobile without current license tags may be stored or parked on a lot or the right-of-way. No motor vehicle shall be parked on the roadway. No noxious or offensive activity shall be carried on upon any lot, nor shall anything be done thereon which may become an annoyance or nuisance to the neighborhood. (t) All driveway culverts shall have stone or brick headwalls at each end. Lots 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 shall use roadways for driveway entrance. No driveway, except Lot 3, shall have driveway on Coopertown Road.

(u) No swine or poultry shall be kept on any of said lots either for private or commercial reasons.

(v) Nothing shall be done on any lot which may be or become a nuisance or annoyance to the neighborhood, and the grounds and general appearance of the property must be in keeping with other lots in the subdivision and mowed on an ongoing basis.

(w) Setback lines are reflected on the plat as noted and any improvements made to said lots must comply with setback lines as established on the plat.

(x) A detached barn may be permitted, however, construction must be a quality character and design as to conform to the character of the development. Said barn and location must be approved by the developer or his assigns.

(y) The owner/developer shall retain the right to approve plans which may slightly deviate from the square footage contained herein. However, the objective is to see that quality style and character of the overall development is preserved.

(z) Horses, dogs and cats may be permitted. A total of five animals per five acre tract. Only two horses per lot will be allowed. Each horse must have a one acre area fenced in for its usage.

14. Remedies. In the event of any violation of the provisions of this agreement by any Lot owner (either by his own conduct or by the conduct of any other occupant of his lot) the Association shall have the right to prosecute an action or other proceedings against such defaulting Lot Owner and/or others for damages or injunction or specific performance, or for judgment for money, or for any combination of remedies, or for any other relief. All expense of the Association in connection with any such actions or preceding including court costs and attorneys fees and other fees and expenses and all damages, liquidated or otherwise, together with interest shall be charged to and assessed against such defaulting Lot Owner, and shall be added to and deemed part of his respective share of the common expenses, and the Association shall have a lien for all of the same as well as for nonpayment of his respective share of the common expenses, as provided herein.

15. Rights and Obligations. Each grantee of the developer, by the acceptance of a deed of conveyance, accepts the property subject to all restrictions, conditions, covenants, reservations, liens and charges, and the jurisdiction, rights and powers created or reserved by this agreement. All future Lot Owners and occupants shall be subject to and shall comply with the provisions of this agreement. All rights, benefits, obligations and privileges of every character hereby imposed shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the land, and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in said land, and shall inure to the benefit of such grantee in like manner as stipulated at length in each and every deed of conveyance or contract of conveyance.

16. Application. All present and future Lot Owners, tenants and occupants of a Lot shall be subject to, and shall comply with the provisions of the By-Laws contained herein and as amended. The acceptance of a deed of conveyance or other devise or of a lease to a lot, or the entering into occupancy of any lot shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of this agreement and of the By-Laws promulgated hereunder, as they may be amended from time to time, are assumed, accepted and ratified by such Lot Owner, tenant or occupant, and all of such provisions shall be covenants running with the land and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in such lot, as though such provisions were recited and stipulated at length in each and every deed, conveyance or lease, thereof. All of such provisions shall be enforced against future owners in any court.
17. Amendment. The covenants and restrictions of this Declaration shall run with and bind the land for a term of 20 years from the date this Declaration is recorded, after which time they shall be automatically extended for successive periods of 10 years unless and until terminated by a recorded instrument signed by Owners representing (at that time) not less than 15 of the Lots within or upon the Property. This Declaration may be amended during the first 20 year period by an instrument signed by Owners representing not less than 15 of the Lots within or upon the Property, and thereafter by an instrument signed by Owners representing not less than 12 of such Lots. Any amendment must be recorded. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else contained herein to the contrary, however, either the Declarants or the Board of Directors shall have the right to unilaterally, without the approval or consent of any other person, Owner or member, amend this Declaration to correct any scrivener’s error, or to insert provisions required by any governmental agency, entity, or instrumentality as a condition to making or insuring loans with respect to the Property or the Units, or to modify its existing provisions to comply with the requirements of any such governmental agency, entity or instrumentality.

The First Amended Declaration of Restrictive Covenants and Maintenance Agreement for Coopertown Farms having been duly executed on the 22nd day of February, 1994, and duly recorded in Book 9259, page 316, Register’s Office for Davidson County, the same is adopted and incorporated by the Board except as to the corrections to spelling and scriveners errors made in this Second Amended Declaration pursuant to paragraph 17.
