Interested in a career with the federal government?

Interested in using veteran education benefits to advance your career?

Do you need certification courses to boost your career opportunities?

Do you have credits but no official degree?

If you answered "YES" the Education Month Webinars are for you!

The Department of Treasury in conjunction with Excelsior College and other sponsors is proud to offer Military Veterans and their families the opportunity to learn more about their education benefits and employment opportunities with the Federal government. The VC4VS will present information on how to use your benefits to help boost your career and enhance your education.
