I. INTRODUCTION

This quarterly report of the Financial Stability Oversight Board (“Oversight Board”), issued pursuant to section 104(g) of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 (“EESA”), covers the period from April 1, 2019 to June 30, 2019 (the “quarterly period”).

The Oversight Board was established by section 104 of the EESA to help oversee the Troubled Asset Relief Program (“TARP”) and other emergency authorities and facilities granted to the Secretary of the Treasury (“Secretary”) under the EESA. The Oversight Board is composed of the Secretary, the Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (“Federal Reserve Board”), the Director of the Federal Housing Finance Agency (“FHFA”), the Chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), and the Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”). In accordance with the bylaws of the Oversight Board, each Member has designated an official of the same agency to serve as that Member’s Representative on the Oversight Board (“Representative”).¹

Through Oversight Board meetings and other activities, the Oversight Board reviews and monitors the development, implementation, and effect of the policies and programs established under TARP to restore liquidity and stability to the U.S. financial system.

The Oversight Board met three times during the quarterly period, specifically on April 25, May 23, and June 27, 2019. As reflected in the minutes of the Oversight Board’s meetings,² the Oversight Board regularly receives presentations and briefings from Treasury officials during these meetings to assist the Oversight Board in monitoring the actions taken by the Treasury Department under TARP and the Administration’s Financial Stability Plan.

¹ The respective Members named the following Representatives: Mr. Andreas Lehnert, Division Director, Federal Reserve Board; Mr. Kipp Kranbuhl, Acting Assistant Secretary for Financial Institutions, Department of the Treasury; Mr. Kurt Usowski, Deputy Assistant Secretary, Office of Economic Affairs, Department of Housing and Urban Development; Mr. Bryan Wood, Deputy Chief of Staff, Securities and Exchange Commission; and Mr. Christopher Curtis, Senior Deputy General Counsel, Federal Housing Finance Agency.

² Approved minutes of the Oversight Board’s meetings are available at: <http://www.treasury.gov/initiatives/financial-stability/about-tarp/finsob/Pages/minutes-reports.aspx>.

II. THE EFFECTS AND COSTS OF EESA PROGRAMS

Housing Programs

As discussed further below, TARP housing-sector programs through the Hardest Hit Fund (“HHF”) will continue to provide assistance to mortgage borrowers going forward. On December 30, 2016, in accordance with the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2016 (“the Act”), the Making Home Affordable (“MHA”) Program closed to new applications. MHA servicers were required to evaluate applications submitted before the deadline and offer Home Affordable Modification Program (“HAMP”) trial modifications to eligible applicants in accordance with program guidelines. All MHA transactions were required to be completed by December 1, 2017.

The Act also amended EESA as it relates to the HHF. The Act gave the Secretary until December 31, 2017 to commit up to $2 billion in additional TARP funds to current HHF program participants. On February 19, 2016, Treasury announced that it would exercise its authority to obligate up to $2 billion in additional TARP funds to the HHF, as authorized by the Act. Treasury allocated the funds among participating housing finance agencies (HFAs) in two phases of $1 billion each, and extended the date by which states would be required to utilize their HHF funds to December 31, 2020.

With the passage of time and maturation of TARP housing-sector programs, and years of successful performance by households under their respective housing assistance actions, the focus of Oversight Board analysis of housing-sector program effects naturally must evolve. Because MHA has closed to new applications, the volume of new MHA borrower assistance actions no longer serves as a useful indicator for its assessment of program effects. Similarly, as the bulk of HAMP modifications has already seasoned beyond four years--an important benchmark in performance analysis of mortgage lending--the Oversight Board believes that further analysis of incremental HAMP interest rate resets and re-default rates at this juncture will yield relatively little additional information on the sustainability of HAMP modifications. Instead, Oversight Board evaluation of the effects of these housing-sector programs will focus on disbursement rates of TARP resources and on homeowner completion of modifications or other respective assistance actions under TARP, for example, as those actions reach the end of their subsidy or TARP program period.

Investment Programs

Repayments and recoupments of financial sector investments have brought the remaining outstanding balances of TARP investment programs to only a small fraction of their peak levels. The Capital Purchase Program (“CPP”) and the Community Development Capital Initiative (“CDCI”) remain the only TARP financial-sector programs that still have outstanding balances. Accordingly, the Oversight Board evaluation of the effects of TARP financial-sector programs focuses on Treasury’s administration of the financial-sector assets Treasury still owns, emphasizing the management of these assets toward exit strategies that protect taxpayers rather than the connection of these assets to overall conditions in financial markets. Evaluations of such efforts are integrated with broader discussion of investment program developments in section III.

Cost of TARP Programs

Treasury provides updated cost assessments for TARP programs four times per year and prepares financial statements for TARP on an annual basis in the Agency Financial Report. The most recent lifetime cost estimates of TARP that were available during the reporting period were as of November 30, 2018 (figure 1). According to these estimates, the expected cost for the housing programs is $32.77 billion, the expected cost for the investment programs is -$0.28 billion, and the expected overall cost of TARP will be approximately $32.49 billion. Using the same assumptions, Treasury also estimated that the combined overall cost of TARP and other Treasury interests in AIG will be approximately $14.94 billion.

The ultimate cost of TARP remains uncertain and will depend on how financial markets and the economy perform in the future. The individual TARP program lifetime costs are also as of March 31, 2019 (figure 1).

² Treasury is continuing to disburse funds related to its housing programs, and continuing to recoup its outstanding investments.

³ Updates regarding oversight of TARP programs can be found at <https://www.treasury.gov/initiatives/financial-stability/about-tarp/Pages/Oversight-and-Accountability.aspx>

⁵ The law creating the Small Business Lending Fund (SBLF) provided that banks could refinance securities issued under the CPP and CDCI programs with securities issued under the SBLF. A total of 137 CPP banks refinanced under the SBLF resulting in repayments of $2.21 billion in CPP investments.

⁶ Estimated lifetime cost for AGP includes $276 million for the termination fee Bank of America paid Treasury-OFS for the value received from the announcement of the negotiations on the guarantee and share losses on a pool of assets.

⁸ In December, 2015, Congress passed the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2016, which gave the Secretary of the Treasury the authority to commit up to $2 billion in additional TARP funds to current HHF program participants. The additional $2 billion was obligated by Treasury as of June 2016 and is included in the total amount obligated for HHF.

⁹ In September 2017 the letter of credit was reduced from $100 million to $27 million. The figures in this line also include $18 million obligated for administrative expenses associated with the letter of credit.

¹⁰ As discussed in note 10 to the Monthly TARP Update, Treasury's investment in AIG common shares consisted of shares acquired in exchange for preferred stock purchased with TARP funds (TARP shares) and shares received from the trust created by the FRBNY for the benefit of Treasury as a result of its loan to AIG (non-TARP shares). Treasury managed the TARP shares and non-TARP shares together, and disposed of them pro-rata in proportion to its holdings. Only the TARP shares are included under "Other Programs—AIG" and the lifetime cost estimate shows a loss based on Treasury's cost basis in the TARP shares alone. However, a gain is shown for the non-TARP shares on the line entitled "Additional AIG Common Shares Held by Treasury" because Treasury's cost basis in such shares was deemed to be zero. When the TARP shares and non-TARP shares are considered together, Treasury's cost on a cash basis was $28.73 per share. TARP estimates include financing costs (borrowing) from the time of initial investment through the close of the program.

III. DISCUSSION OF THE ACTIONS TAKEN BY TREASURY UNDER THE EESA DURING THE QUARTERLY PERIOD

This section provides a detailed update on the various programs, policies, financial commitments, and administrative actions taken by Treasury under EESA during the quarterly period, from April 1 to June 30, 2019, subject to review and oversight of the Oversight Board.

a. Housing Stabilization and Foreclosure Mitigation

During the quarterly period, a quarterly HAMP Performance Summary was released covering program activity during the period January 2019 through March 2019.⁶ A Performance Summary for HHF was also released covering the first quarter of 2019.⁷ In addition, housing market indicator reports on the health of the nation's housing market produced by HUD were released for each month of the quarter.⁸

i. MHA

MHA programs provide assistance actions through first and second lien permanent modifications under HAMP, Treasury FHA HAMP, RD-HAMP (administered by the Rural Development Division of the Department of Agriculture), Second Lien Modification Program ("2MP"), and other assistance provided through Home Affordable Foreclosure Alternatives ("HAFA") transactions and Home Affordable Unemployment Program ("UP") forbearance plans. For some programs, assistance includes that provided by the Government Sponsored Enterprises ("GSEs").

The Act provided that the MHA Program would terminate on December 31, 2016, except with respect to certain loan modification applications made before such date. As set forth in program guidelines, MHA servicers were required to evaluate applications submitted before the deadline and offer trial modifications to eligible applicants. All MHA trial modification transactions were required to be completed by December 1, 2017.

A total of $22.8 billion has been committed to MHA. As of June 30, 2019, Treasury had disbursed $20.4 billion in incentive payments for MHA, $0.29 billion of which was disbursed during the second quarter of 2019.⁹ Treasury estimated that $23.15 billion in incentive payments would ultimately be disbursed in association with all MHA assistance actions, based on actual and projected volume as of September 30, 2018.

⁶ The MHA Program Performance Report includes data on the characteristics of permanent modifications, servicer activity, re-default rates, homeowner experience, and HAMP activity by state.

⁷ HHF Performance Summaries are available at:

a. HAMP

Through December 2017, more than 1.7 million HAMP permanent modifications had been completed since the start of the program. As of December 31, 2017, homeowners that received HAMP permanent modifications saved approximately $466 per month (median savings), representing a reduction of more than one third from their before-modification mortgage payment. Since HAMP began, homeowners who received permanent modifications had saved an estimated $55 billion in monthly mortgage payments.¹⁰

ii. HHF

As of June 30, 2019, 18 states and the District of Columbia were operating HHF programs throughout their respective jurisdictions, and collectively had drawn approximately $9.33 billion (approximately 97.2 percent) of the $9.60 billion allocated under the program (figure 2). Each of these eligible jurisdictions draws down funds as they are needed. The jurisdictions have until December 31, 2020, to approve assistance actions and must have no more than five percent of their allocation on hand before they can draw down additional funds.

As of June 30, 2019, HHF has disbursed funds on behalf of 90 programs. Program data have indicated over 80 percent of homeowners approved for HHF mortgage payment and reinstatement programs have received assistance due to a hardship related to either unemployment or underemployment. During the quarter, Treasury approved program changes for Indiana and California. Program changes are outlined each month in the Monthly Report to Congress. At this late stage of the HHF program, many of the HFAs have closed or expect to close their largest programs. Treasury has and will continue its efforts to identify best practices, share lessons learned among programs, and provide robust oversight of HFAs as the program winds down.

servicer with respect to non-GSE loans. Incentive payments for GSE loans are borne by the GSEs and not Treasury.

b. Capital and Guarantee Programs for Financial Institutions*i. Update on the Capital Purchase Program (“CPP”)*

As of June 30, 2019, 2 institutions remained in the CPP program with total outstanding CPP obligations of $17.4 million. As of that date, Treasury had received approximately $207.73 billion in gross proceeds from repayments and auction sales under the CPP, exceeding the $204.89 billion in total funds initially disbursed.¹¹

These repayments and auction sales, along with dividends, interest, and fee income from participating bank organizations brought the total cash received from the CPP to $226.8 billion.

During the quarterly period, Treasury sold its remaining investment in one institution for total proceeds of $3.5 million.

No additional CPP institutions filed for bankruptcy or entered receivership during the quarterly period. A total of 34 CPP recipients have been placed in receivership, bankruptcy, or have been written-off since the inception of the program (figure 3), of which 14 have exited the respective process.

¹¹ This amount received includes all proceeds received as of June 30, 2019 from CPP participants, including sales of common and preferred shares; institutions that refinanced to the Small Business Lending Fund (“SBLF”); and exchanges out of the CPP into the CDCI.

ii. Update on the Community Development Capital Initiative (“CDCI”)

During the reporting period, two institutions repurchased Treasury’s outstanding investments at par for a total of $6.3 million. As of June 30, 2019, some 5 CDCI institutions remained in the program for a total outstanding investment of $22.7 million.

c. Other Programs*i. Update on the Automotive Industry Financing Program (“AIFP”)*

During the reporting period, Treasury received a payment of $40.4 million as part of the Avoidance Action Trust (AAT) settlement, related to the General Motors Debtor-in-Possession Lenders.

APPENDIX A

Minutes of the Financial Stability Oversight Board Meetings
During the Quarterly Period

Minutes of the Financial Stability Oversight Board Meeting
April 25, 2019

A meeting of the Financial Stability Oversight Board (the “Board”) was held at 3:00 p.m. EDT on Thursday, April 25, 2019, via teleconference.

MEMBER REPRESENTATIVES PARTICIPATING:

Mr. Lehnert, Division Director,
Federal Reserve Board
(Chairperson)

Mr. Kranbuhl, Acting Assistant
Secretary for Financial Institutions, Department of the Treasury

Mr. Valverde, Principal Advisor,
Federal Housing Finance Agency

Mr. Usowski, Deputy Assistant Secretary, Office of Economic Affairs, Department of Housing and Urban Development

STAFF PARTICIPATING:

Mr. Treacy, Executive Director

AGENCY OFFICIALS
PARTICIPATING:

Ms. Johnson-Kutch, Director, Office of Financial Stability, Department of the Treasury

Mr. Gillen, Acting Budget
Director, Office of Financial Stability, Department of the Treasury

Mr. Doerner, Supervisory Economist, Federal Housing Finance Agency

The meeting was called to order by
Mr. Lehnert at approximately 3:02 p.m. EDT.

Upon commencement of the meeting, Representatives discussed draft minutes for the Board’s previous meeting, held on Thursday, March 28, 2019. The minutes for that meeting had been circulated and reviewed by Representatives in advance. Upon a motion duly made and seconded, Representatives voted to approve the minutes of the meeting, subject to such technical revisions by Representatives as deemed necessary.

Treasury officials provided the Representatives with an update on the programs Treasury established under the Troubled Asset Relief Program (“TARP”). The meeting discussion predominantly focused on the Capital Purchase Program (“CPP”); the Community Development Capital Initiative (“CDCI”); and the Making Home Affordable (“MHA”) and Hardest Hit Fund (“HHF”) initiatives. Included in the materials distributed in advance of the meeting was the latest monthly report issued by Treasury under Section 105(a) of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act (“Monthly Report”), which contained information related to programs established by Treasury under TARP and aggregate information regarding the allocated and disbursed amounts under TARP. Throughout the meeting, Representatives raised and discussed issues relevant to the policies and programs established under TARP.

Referring to prepared materials, Treasury officials provided a report on recent developments in the TARP program. As of March 31, 2019, Treasury had disbursed a total of $441.06 billion, including approximately $411.72 billion under TARP investment programs and approximately $29.34 billion under TARP housing-related programs to assist at-risk homeowners. Total receipts on all TARP investment programs were approximately $443 billion.

Treasury officials provided the Representatives with a status update on TARP investment programs, beginning with CPP. With no transactions in March, as of March 31 some 3 institutions remained in the portfolio with a total outstanding invested amount of $21.4 million.

Treasury officials next reported on the status of the CDCI program. During early April, Hope Federal Credit Union repaid its TARP shares in full for proceeds of $4.5 million. Treasury also received a repayment from Tri-State Bank of Memphis, generating $1.8 million in proceeds. As of March 31, prior to these two transactions, the CDCI portfolio stood at 7 institutions, with a total outstanding invested amount of roughly $29 million.

Treasury officials then reported on MHA. As outlined in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2016, the MHA program terminated on December 31, 2016, and servicers were required to complete all MHA transactions by December 1, 2017. As such there was no change in the number of homeowner assistance actions under MHA for March.

Treasury officials next discussed recent developments in the HHF program. As of March 31, Housing Finance Agencies in the nineteen eligible jurisdictions had disbursed approximately $8.1 billion in program funds ($9.0 billion in total program and administrative funds), and drawn down $9.2 billion in total funds. During March, there were no HHF program changes.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 3:07 p.m. EDT.

(electronically signed)

Mr. Treacy,
Executive Director

The meeting was called to order by
Mr. Lehnert at approximately 3:00 p.m. EDT.

Upon commencement of the meeting, Representatives discussed draft minutes for the Board’s previous meeting, held on Thursday, April 25, 2019. The minutes for that meeting had been circulated and reviewed by Representatives in advance. Upon a motion duly made and seconded, Representatives voted to approve the minutes of the meeting, subject to such technical revisions by Representatives as deemed necessary.

Treasury officials provided the Representatives with an update on the programs Treasury established under the Troubled Asset Relief Program (“TARP”). The meeting discussion predominantly focused on the Capital Purchase Program (“CPP”); the Community Development Capital Initiative (“CDCI”); and the Making Home Affordable (“MHA”) and Hardest Hit Fund (“HHF”) initiatives. Included in the materials distributed in advance of the meeting was the latest monthly report issued by Treasury under Section 105(a) of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act (“Monthly Report”), which contained information related to programs established by Treasury under TARP and aggregate information regarding the allocated and disbursed amounts under TARP. Throughout the meeting, Representatives raised and discussed issues relevant to the policies and programs established under TARP.

Referring to prepared materials, Treasury officials provided a report on recent developments in the TARP program. As of April 30, 2019, Treasury had disbursed a total of $441.17 billion, including approximately $411.72 billion under TARP investment programs and approximately $29.45 billion under TARP housing-related programs to assist at-risk homeowners. Total receipts on all TARP investment programs were approximately $443 billion.

Treasury officials provided the Representatives with a status update on TARP investment programs, beginning with CPP. As of April 30, some 3 institutions remained in the portfolio with a total outstanding invested amount of $21.35 million.

Treasury officials next reported on the status of the CDCI program. During April, Treasury completed the complete repurchase of Hope Federal Credit Union, generating $4.6 million in proceeds, and Tri-State Bank of Memphis, generating $1.8 million in proceeds. As of April 30, the CDCI portfolio stood at 5 institutions, with a total outstanding invested amount of roughly $23 million.

Treasury officials then reported on MHA. As outlined in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2016, the MHA program terminated on December 31, 2016, and servicers were required to complete all MHA transactions by December 1, 2017. As such there was no change in the number of homeowner assistance actions under MHA for April.

Treasury officials next discussed recent developments in the HHF program. As of April 30, 2019, Housing Finance Agencies in the nineteen eligible jurisdictions had disbursed approximately $8.1 billion in program funds ($9.0 billion in total program and administrative funds), and drawn down $9.21 billion in total funds. During April, HFF program changes were approved for the state of California.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 3:10 p.m. EDT.

Mr. Beirne, Counsel, Federal Reserve Board

The meeting was called to order by
Mr. Valverde at approximately 2:04 p.m.
EDT.

Upon commencement of the meeting, Representatives discussed draft minutes for the Board’s previous meeting, held on Thursday, May 23, 2019. The minutes for that meeting had been circulated and reviewed by Representatives in advance. Upon a motion duly made and seconded, Representatives voted to approve the minutes of the meeting, subject to such technical revisions by Representatives as deemed necessary.

Treasury officials provided the Representatives with an update on the programs Treasury established under the Troubled Asset Relief Program (“TARP”). The meeting discussion predominantly focused on the Capital Purchase Program (“CPP”); the Community Development Capital Initiative (“CDCI”); and the Making Home Affordable (“MHA”) and Hardest Hit Fund (“HHF”) initiatives. Included in the materials distributed in advance of the meeting was the latest monthly report issued by Treasury under Section 105(a) of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act (“Monthly Report”), which contained information related to programs established by Treasury under TARP and aggregate information regarding the allocated and disbursed amounts under TARP. Throughout the meeting, Representatives raised and discussed issues relevant to the policies and programs established under TARP.

Referring to prepared materials, Treasury officials provided a report on recent developments in the TARP program. As of May 31, 2019, Treasury had disbursed a total of $441.37 billion, including approximately $411.72 billion under TARP investment programs and approximately $29.65 billion under TARP housing-related programs to assist at-risk homeowners. Total receipts on all TARP investment programs were approximately $443 billion.

Treasury officials provided the Representatives with a status update on TARP investment programs, beginning with CPP. During May, Treasury completed the complete sale of Broadway Financial Corporation, generating $3.5 million in proceeds. As of May 31, some 2 institutions remained in the portfolio with a total outstanding invested amount of $17.4 million.

Treasury officials next reported on the status of the CDCI program. As of May 31, the CDCI portfolio stood at 5 institutions, with a total outstanding invested amount of roughly $22.7 million.

Treasury officials then reported on MHA. As outlined in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2016, the MHA program terminated on December 31, 2016, and servicers were required to complete all MHA transactions by December 1, 2017. As such there was no change in the number of homeowner assistance actions under MHA for May.

Treasury officials next discussed recent developments in the HHF program. As of May 31, 2019, Housing Finance Agencies in the nineteen eligible jurisdictions had disbursed approximately $8.2 billion in program funds ($9.1 billion in total program and administrative funds), and drawn down $9.3 billion in total funds. During May, there were no HHF program changes.

Representatives and officials then engaged in a roundtable discussion related to the state of the current housing markets and the ability of the programs established under TARP to provide support to the housing markets while assisting at-risk mortgage borrowers. As part of the discussion, FHFA officials provided data related to housing and mortgage market conditions.

Finally, Representatives and staff of the Board discussed upcoming activities of the Board.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 2:20 p.m. EDT.
