American taxpayers are quite interested in knowing how banks have used the money that Treasury has invested under the Capital Purchase Program (CPP) and Community Development Capital Initiative (CDCI). To answer that question, Treasury is seeking responses that describe generally how the CPP/CDCI investment has affected the operation of your business. We understand that once received, the cash associated with TARP funding is indistinguishable from other cash sources, unless the funds were segregated, and therefore it may not be feasible to identify precisely how the CPP/CDCI investment was deployed or how many CPP/CDCI dollars were allocated to each use. Nevertheless, we ask you to provide as much information as you can about how you have used the capital Treasury has provided, and how your uses of that capital have changed over time. Treasury will be pairing this survey with a summary of certain balance sheet and other financial data from your institution's regulatory filings, so to the extent you find it helpful to do so, please feel free to refer to your institution's quarterly call reports to illustrate your answers. This is your opportunity to speak to the taxpayers in your own words, which will be posted on our website.

What specific ways did your institution utilize CPP/CDCI capital? Check all that apply and elaborate as appropriate, especially if the uses have shifted over time. Your responses should reflect actions taken over the past year (or for the portion of the year in which CPP/CDCI funds were outstanding).

Increase lending or reduce lending less than otherwise would have occurred.

Since our receipt of the CDCl funds in Sept 2010, our loans have increased 12% and our deposits have increased 21%. Without the additional capital provided by the CDCl funds, we would not have been comfortable with that growth.

To the extent the funds supported increased lending, please describe the major type of loans, if possible (residential mortgage loans, commercial mortgage loans, small business loans, etc.).

Of our total growth in loans, approx 44% of the growth has been Commercial and Industrial, 24% Consumer, 20% Residential Mortgage, 8% R/E non-mortgage, and 4% Agriculture.

Increase charge-offs.

Purchase another financial institution or purchase assets from another financial institution.

In Oct 2010, we purchased a branch bldg from another financial institution that had closed it. This branch is located in an underbanked rural area of MS (Webster County). Since we re-opened the branch in Oct 2010, it has grown to $11.5 million in deposits and $4.3 million in loans.

Held as non-leveraged increase to total capital.

What actions were you able to avoid because of the capital infusion of CPP/CDCI funds?

We were able to avoid a slow-down of lending in our market area.

What actions were you able to take that you may not have taken without the capital infusion of CPP/CDCI funds?

Our bank was able to continue to grow and make loans because of the CDCI funds. Since our acceptance of the CDCI funds in Sept 2010, our loans have grown 12% and our deposits have grown 21%. Without the CDCI funds, we would have limited our growth and lending activity. Without the CDCI funds, we would not have purchased and re-opened a branch that had been closed by a large regional bank competitor. This branch is located in a rural area of MS that qualifies as an investment area under our CDFI initiative.
