§ 4902.5 Procedures for requesting amendment of a record.

(c) An individual who desires assistance in preparing a request for amendment of a record shall submit such request to the General Counsel, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation. The Deputy General Counsel shall respond to such request as promptly as possible.

§ 4902.6 Action on request for amendment of a record.

(c) An individual who desires assistance in preparing an appeal of a denial under this section shall submit a request to the Deputy General Counsel, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation. The Deputy General Counsel shall respond to the request as promptly as possible, but in no event more than 30 days after receipt.

§ 4902.7 Appeal of a denial of a request for amendment of a record.

(a) An appeal from a denial of a request for amendment of a record under § 4902.6 shall be submitted, within 45 days of receipt of the denial, to the General Counsel, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, unless the record subject to such request is one maintained by the Office of the General Counsel, in which event the appeal shall be submitted to the Deputy Executive Director, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation. The appeal shall state in detail the basis on which it is made and shall clearly state “Privacy Act Request” on the first page. In addition, the submission shall clearly state “Privacy Act Request” on the envelope (for mail, hand delivery, or commercial delivery), in the subject line (for e-mail), or on the cover sheet (for fax).

§ 4902.10 Filing rules; computation of time.

(a) Filing rules—(1) Where to file. See § 4000.4 of this chapter for information on where to file a submission under this part with the PBGC.

(2) Method of filing. The PBGC applies the rules in subpart D of part 4000 of this chapter to determine permissible methods of filing with the PBGC under this part.

(3) Date of filing. The PBGC applies the rules in subpart C of part 4000 of this chapter to compute any time period for filing under this part.

PART 4903—DEBT COLLECTION

§ 4903.24 Request for offset from other agencies.

Background

Section 4 of the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act of 1990 ("FCPIA Act") (Pub. L. 101–410, 104 Stat. 890; 28 U.S.C. 2461 note), as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 ("DCIA") (Pub. L. 104–134, 110 Stat. 3373–3378; 31 U.S.C. 3701 note), requires each Federal agency with statutory authority to assess civil monetary penalties ("CMPs") to adjust those CMPs for inflation according to a formula described in section 5 of the FCPIA Act. One purpose of the FCPIA Act is to ensure that CMPs continue to maintain their deterrent effect through periodic cost-of-living based adjustments. The DCIA amended the FCPIA Act to require that each agency, to the extent necessary, issue regulations at least every four years to adjust its CMPs for inflation.

Section 5 of the FCPIA Act requires that each CMP having a specified or maximum monetary amount provided for by Federal law be increased by the percentage by which the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers ("CPI"), published by the Department of Labor, for the month of June of the calendar year preceding the adjustment exceeds the CPI for the month of June of the calendar year in which the amount of the CMP was last set or adjusted pursuant to law. The statute includes a mechanism for rounding penalty increases to ensure that the first inflation adjustment of a CMP to 10 percent of such penalty.

With regard to rounding, the FCPIA Act sets out penalty ranges, from amounts less than or equal to $100 to amounts greater than $200,000, and provides different dollar multiples for rounding the increase in each penalty range. Specifically, section 5(a) of the FCPIA Act requires that any increase in a CMP be rounded to the nearest multiple of:

1. $10 in the case of penalties less than or equal to $100;
2. $100 in the case of penalties greater than $100 but less than or equal to $1,000;
3. $1,000 in the case of penalties greater than $1,000 but less than or equal to $10,000;
4. $5,000 in the case of penalties greater than $10,000 but less than or equal to $100,000;
5. $10,000 in the case of penalties greater than $100,000 but less than or equal to $200,000; and
6. $25,000 in the case of penalties greater than $200,000.

OFAC currently is authorized to impose CMPs pursuant to five statutes: The Trading with the Enemy Act ("TWEA") (50 U.S.C. App. 16); the International Emergency Economics Powers Act ("IEEPA") (50 U.S.C. 1705); the Iraq Sanctions Act of 1990 ("ISA") (Pub. L. 101–513, 104 Stat. 2049; 50 U.S.C. 1701 note); the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA") (18 U.S.C. 2339B); and the Foreign Narcotics Kingpin Designation Act ("FNKDA") (21 U.S.C. 1906). The current maximum CMP for each of the first four statutes was last adjusted or set by statute in 1996. The current maximum CMP under the FNKDA was set when the statute was enacted in 1999 and has not yet been adjusted for inflation.

With regard to those CMPs last adjusted or set by statute in 1996, the CPI value increased from 156.7 for June 1996 to 179.9 for June 2002, resulting in an inflation factor of 1.148 (i.e., a 14.8 percent increase). The CMP inflation factor for the FNKDA is 1.082 (i.e., an 8.2 percent increase), calculated using the CPI values of 166.2 for June 1999 and 179.9 for June 2002.

The original maximum CMP of $50,000 under TWEA was adjusted for inflation to $55,000 in 1996. Multiplying the current penalty of $55,000 by the factor of 1.148 results in $63,140, an increase of $8,140. When that number is rounded to the nearest multiple of $5,000, as required by the FCPIA Act, the maximum TWEA-based CMP per violation is increased to the inflation-adjusted amount of $65,000.

The original maximum CMP of $10,000 under IEEPA was adjusted for inflation to $11,000 in 1996. Multiplying the current penalty of $11,000 by the factor of 1.148 results in $12,628, an increase of $1,628. When that number is rounded to the nearest multiple of $5,000, as required by the FCPIA Act, the maximum IEEPA-based CMP per violation remains $11,000.

The original maximum CMP of $250,000 under ISA was adjusted for inflation to $275,000 in 1996. Multiplying the current penalty of $275,000 by the factor of 1.148 results in $315,700, an increase of $40,700. When that number is rounded to the nearest multiple of $25,000, as required by the FCPIA Act, the maximum ISA-based CMP per violation is increased to the inflation-adjusted amount of $325,000.

The maximum CMP of $50,000 under AEDPA was set by statute in 1996 and has not previously been adjusted for inflation. Multiplying the current penalty of $50,000 by the factor of 1.148 results in $57,400, an increase of $7,400. When that number is rounded to the nearest multiple of $5,000, as required by the FCPIA Act, the maximum AEDPA-based CMP per violation is increased to the inflation-adjusted amount of $55,000.

The maximum CMP of $1,000,000 under FNKDA was set by statute in 1999 and has not previously been adjusted for inflation. Multiplying the current penalty of $1,000,000 by the factor of 1.082 results in $1,082,000, an increase of $82,000. When that number is rounded to the nearest multiple of $25,000, as required by the FCPIA Act, the maximum FNKDA-based CMP per violation is increased to the inflation-adjusted amount of $1,075,000.

Executive Order 12866, Administrative Procedure Act, Regulatory Flexibility Act, and Paperwork Reduction Act

Because the regulations involve a foreign affairs function, Executive Order 12866 and the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553) requiring notice of proposed rulemaking, opportunity for public participation, and delay in effective date, are inapplicable. Additionally, advance notice, public comment, and delayed effectiveness are unnecessary because the regulations merely reflect adjustments in penalty rates required by law and do not substantively alter the existing regulatory framework or in any way affect the terms under which civil penalties are assessed by OFAC. Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required for this rule, the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601–612) does not apply.
The Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply because the rule does not impose information collection requirements that would require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On August 2, 1990, the President issued Executive Order 12722, declaring a national emergency with respect to Iraq. This order was issued under the authority of, inter alia, the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.), the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.), and section 301 of title 3 of the U.S. Code and imposed economic sanctions, including a complete trade embargo, with respect to Iraq. In keeping with United Nations Security Council Resolution 661 of August 6, 1990, and under the United Nations Participation Act (22 U.S.C. 287c), the President also issued Executive Order 12724 of August 9, 1990, which imposed additional restrictions. The Iraqi Sanctions Regulations, 31 CFR part 575 (the “Regulations”), implement Executive Orders 12722 and 12724 and are administered by the Treasury Department’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (“OFAC”).

On May 22, 2003, the United Nations Security Council adopted Resolution 1483, which substantially lifted the multilateral economic sanctions with respect to Iraq. On May 23, 2003, OFAC issued a general license that reflected Resolution 1483 by authorizing most transactions that had been prohibited by the Regulations. This general license was published in the Federal Register on June 27, 2003, as new section 575.533 of the Regulations (68 FR 38188–38190).

Section 575.533 supercedes prior substantive licensing provisions of the Regulations. OFAC is removing and reserving previous substantive licensing provisions—i.e., sections 575.505, 575.506, 575.507, 575.508, 575.509, 575.510, 575.511, 575.513, 575.514, 575.517, 575.518, 575.519, 575.520, 575.521, 575.522, 575.523, 575.524, 575.525, 575.526, 575.527, 575.528, 575.529, 575.530, 575.531, and 575.532—in an effort to clarify that the operative authorization now appears in section 575.533.

OFAC also is removing certain definitions that are no longer relevant because they pertain to other regulatory provisions that have been removed. The following outdated definitions are being removed: section 575.307 (defining “Government of Kuwait”), section 575.325 (defining “986 Escrow Account” and “United Nations Iraq Account,” both of which refer to a defunct account), and sections 575.327 and 575.328 (defining “Memorandum of Understanding” and “Guidelines,” both of which refer to outdated procedures for approving certain transactions involving Iraq).

OFAC expects to make other conforming amendments to the Regulations in the near future and welcomes public comments on this endeavor.

OFAC also is publishing interpretive guidance concerning the scope of section 575.533. The new section 575.419 published today describes the circumstances in which U.S. persons may trade in Iraqi commercial or sovereign debt.

Request for Comments

Because these regulations involve a foreign affairs function, the provisions of Executive Order 12866 and the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553) (the “APA”) requiring notice of proposed rulemaking, opportunity for public participation, and delay in effective date, are inapplicable. However, because of the importance of the issues addressed in these regulations, they are being issued in interim form and comments will be considered in the development of a final rule. Accordingly, OFAC encourages interested persons who wish to comment to do so at the earliest possible time to permit the fullest consideration of their views. Comments may address the impact of the regulations on the submitter's activities, whether of a commercial, non-commercial or humanitarian nature, as well as changes that would improve the clarity and organization of the regulations.

The period for submission of comments will close December 29, 2003. The address for submitting comments appears near the beginning of this document. OFAC will consider all comments received before the close of the comment period in developing final regulations. Comments received after the end of the comment period will be considered if possible, but their consideration cannot be assured. OFAC will not accept public comments accompanied by a request that a part or all of the submission be treated confidentially because of its business proprietary nature or for any other reason. OFAC will return such a submission to the originator without considering the comments in the development of final regulations. In the interest of accuracy and completeness, OFAC requires comments in written form.
