(January 1999)

1998 Annual Report to the Congress  on Assets in the United States
Belonging to Terrorist Countries  or International Terrorist Organizations

SUMMARY

More than $3.4 billion of assets of seven state sponsors of terrorism are located within U.S. jurisdiction. Of that amount, more than $3.3 billion are blocked by the U.S. Department of the Treasury pursuant to economic sanctions imposed by the United States against six of the terrorist countries. In addition, approximately $675,000 in assets of international terrorist organizations which were identified and blocked within the United States in 1995, remain blocked in 1998. Approximately $23.6 million in funds are currently blocked based upon an interest of Usama Bin Ladin.

BACKGROUND

Section 304 of Public Law 102-138, as amended by Public Law 103-236 (22 U.S.C. § 2656g), requires the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Attorney General and appropriate investigative agencies, to provide annual reports to the Congress concerning the nature and extent of assets held in the United States by terrorist countries and organizations engaged in international terrorism. The Department of the Treasury submitted its first Terrorist Assets Report to the Congress in April 1993. The current report, covering calendar year 1998, is the seventh successive successive Terrorist Assets Report.
The Terrorist Assets Report is submitted to the Committee on Foreign Relations and the Committee on Finance in the Senate and to the Committee on International Relations and the Committee on Ways and Means in the House. It was prepared by the Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC"), which has the responsibility for administering and enforcing economic sanctions programs mandated by the President pursuant to his declaration of a national emergency with respect to particular foreign countries and non-state parties. Almost ninety-nine percent of the identified U.S.-based assets of state sponsors of terrorism and all blocked assets of international terrorist organizations are under the sanctions controls of OFAC.

More than a dozen Federal agencies and offices were polled in developing the report. They included:

- Department of State
- Joint Chiefs of Staff
- Department of Justice
- U.S. Customs Service
- Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Internal Revenue Service
- U.S. Secret Service
- Department of Defense
- Intelligence Community
- Office of Foreign Assets Control
- Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms
- Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS)
- Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (U.S. Treasury)

State Sponsors of Terrorism: State sponsors of terrorism are those countries designated by the Secretary of State under Section 40(d) of the Arms Export Control Act, Title 22, U.S.C. § 2780(d). States currently listed as sponsors of terrorism are: Cuba, Iran, Iraq, Libya, North Korea, Sudan, and Syria, however blockings are only available for the first six countries, and not for Syria. The existing asset freezes, financial prohibitions, trade embargoes, and travel- and transportation-related restrictions are promulgated under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, Title 50, U.S.C., Appendix, §§ 1-44 (Cuba and North Korea), the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, Title 50 U.S.C., §§ 1701-1706 ("IEEPA") (Iran, Iraq, Libya, and Sudan), the United Nations Participation Act, Title 22, U.S.C., § 287c (Iraq and Libya), the International Security and Development Cooperation Act, Title 22, U.S.C., §§ 2349aa-8 & -9 (Iran and Libya), and the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 (Pub. L. 104-132, 110 Stat. 1214-1319 (the "Antiterrorism Act") (Cuba, Iran, Iraq, Libya, North Korea, Sudan, and Syria). Section 321 of the Antiterrorism Act (18 U.S.C. 2332d) makes it a criminal offense for United States persons, except as provided in regulations issued by the Secretary of the Treasury in consultation with the Secretary of State, to engage in financial transactions with the governments of countries designated under section 6(j) of the Export Administration Act (50 U.S.C. App. 2405) as supporting international terrorism.

Information concerning the known holdings in the United States of the seven state sponsors of terrorism is reported below in Part I. It should be noted that, with the exception of Syria, the totals represent amounts frozen under United States sanctions programs which, in most cases, block all property in which the target is believed to have any interest. In some instances, the interest may be partial, or fall short of undisputed title to the property. Determinations concerning these interests are made based on all relevant information before OFAC. Many of the assets are also the subject of other claims, sometimes by multiple parties. Blocked assets may not be attached, however, by any claimant unless authorized by OFAC consistent with U.S. policy.

International Terrorist Organizations: Section 304 of Public Law 102-138 also requires the Secretary of the Treasury to report to the Congress annually on those assets of international terrorist organizations that are held within the United States. For purposes of this report, Treasury has used three documents to establish a baseline for determining which groups may fall within the definition of "international terrorist organization."

Section 302 of the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("Antiterrorism Act") authorizes the Secretary of State to designate organizations meeting stated requirements as foreign terrorist organizations, with prior notification to the Congress of the intent to designate. Upon that notification to the Congress, the Secretary of the Treasury may require U.S. financial institutions to block certain financial transactions involving assets of the foreign organizations proposed for designation. Section 303 of the Act makes it a crime for persons within the U.S. or subject to U.S. jurisdiction to knowingly provide material support or resources to a foreign terrorist organization designated under section 302. Additionally, except as authorized by the Treasury Department, financial institutions in possession or control of funds in which a foreign terrorist organization or its agent has an interest are required to block such funds and file reports in accordance with Treasury Department regulations.

The first baseline document (Tab 1) is the list of Foreign Terrorist Organizations ("FTOs") designated by the Secretary of State on October 8, 1997 pursuant to the Antiterrorism Act, which became effective on April 24, 1996 (Tab 12). The Antiterrorism Act authorizes the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Departments of the Treasury and Justice, to designate certain organizations as foreign terrorist organizations. Thirty groups worldwide were designated by the Secretary of State as Foreign Terrorist Organizations. Notice of the groups that comprise the Foreign Terrorist Organizations (Tabs 1 and 14) are discussed in more detail in Part II.

The second baseline document (Tab 2) is Executive Order 12947, which became effective on January 24, 1995, and which blocks assets in the United States or within the possession or control of U.S. persons of terrorists who threaten to disrupt the Middle East Peace Process. Twelve Middle East terrorist groups were identified in the Executive order. Accompanying and subsequent notices of the groups and individuals who comprise the "List of Specially Designated Terrorists Who Threaten To Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process" (Tab 4), are discussed in more detail in Part II, which addresses international terrorists organizations' assets in the United States, and are included as individual attachments.

The third baseline document (Tab 3) is Executive Order 13099, which became effective on August 25, 1998, and amended Executive Order 12947 by blocking the assets of three additional terrorists and one organization. Specifically, this order identifies Usama bin Muhammad bin Awad bin Ladin, the Islamic Army (and it's aliases), Abu Hafs al-Masri, and Rifa'i Ahmad Taha Musa as the individuals and organization added to the Annex of E.O. 12947.
PART I -- KNOWN ASSETS OF STATE SPONSORS OF TERRORISM

The following information describes the nature and extent of assets within United States jurisdiction that belong to countries identified as state sponsors of terrorism. These countries and the gross amounts of their reported U.S.-based assets are (in millions): Cuba - $170.6; Iran - $22.5; Iraq - $2,200.2; Libya - $951.3; North Korea - $26.3; Sudan - $17.3, and Syria - $51.0. The total of their gross assets within U.S. jurisdiction is $3,439 billion dollars.

The assets reported for Iran in Exhibit A are diplomatic properties remaining blocked since the 1979-81 hostage crisis. A variety of other obligations to Iran may ultimately be determined to exist, depending on the outcome of cases before the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal.

Almost ninety-nine percent of the known assets within U.S. jurisdiction of state sponsors of terrorism are blocked by the Department of the Treasury. However, not all of the blocked assets are literally within the United States. Substantial amounts, identified further below, are in foreign branches of U.S. banks. They are blocked because, under U.S. law, those bank branches are subject to United States jurisdiction. Consequently, those assets are not blocked at institutions within the United States.

Changes in the value, location, and composition of the blocked assets identified below occur over time as OFAC receives reports from holders of blocked assets identifying additional assets of sanctioned countries, updates information received from holders of blocked accounts on accrued interest and fluctuating market values, or licenses various transactions in accordance with U.S. foreign policy objectives and applicable law.

PART II -- ASSETS OF INTERNATIONAL TERRORIST ORGANIZATIONS

On January 23, 1995, President Clinton declared a national emergency pursuant to IEEPA (50 U.S.C. § 1701 et seq.) and other authorities and signed Executive Order 12947, "Prohibiting Transactions With Terrorists Who Threaten To Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process." Twelve Middle East terrorist organizations were named in the annex to the Order. The Order prohibits transfers, including "charitable contributions," of funds, goods, or services to any organizations or individuals designated under its authority; and it blocks all property in the United States or within the possession or control of a U.S. person in which there is an interest of any designated terrorist.

The Order also applies to persons determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General, to be owned or controlled by, or to act for or on behalf of, any person designated under the Order. Collectively, these prohibited persons are known as "Specially Designated Terrorists" or "SDTs." A concurrent notice from Treasury published 31 pseudonyms and name variations for the twelve terrorist organizations and added the identities of 18 individuals who have important roles with the terrorist groups.

The Order also blocks the property and interests in property of persons found by the Secretary of State, in coordination with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General, (1) to have committed, or to pose a significant risk of committing, acts of violence that have the purpose or effect of disrupting the

The terrorist organizations identified in the Annex as originally published are: (1) Abu Nidal Organization (ANO), (2) Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine (DFLP), (3) Hizballah, (4) Islamic Gama'at (IG), (5) Islamic Resistance Movement (NANAS), (6) Jihad, (7) Kach, (8) Kahane Chai, (9) Palestinian Islamic Jihad -- Shiqaqi faction (PIJ), (10) Palestine Liberation Front -- Abu Abbas faction (PLF-Abu Abbas), (11) Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine (PFLP), and (12) Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine -- General Command (PFLP-GC).

On January 18, 1996, and again on January 21, 1997, January 21, 1998, and January 20 1999 President Clinton signed a Notice that continues the national emergency with respect to foreign terrorists who threaten to disrupt the Middle East Peace Process. Those Notices (Tabs 8, 9, 10, and 11 of this report) were published on January 22, 1996 (61 Federal Register 1695), January 23, 1997 (62 Federal Register 3443), January 22, 1998 (63 Federal Register 3445), and January 22, 1999 (64 Federal Register 3393) respectively.

This Federal Register Notice of the Specially Designated Terrorists List included the 12 organizations named in E.O. 12947, 31 pseudonyms and name variations for the groups, and 18 key individuals, including 9 aliases for them. Middle East Peace Process, or (2) to be assisting in, sponsoring or providing financial, material, or technological support for, or services in support of, terrorist activities.

On August 20, 1998, President Clinton signed Executive Order 13099, "Prohibiting Transactions With Terrorists Who Threaten To Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process" (Tab 3) to amend E.O. 12947 by adding three individuals and one organization to the annex of E.O. 12947:

Usama bin Muhammad bin Awad bin Ladin
Islamic Army (and it's aliases)
Abu Hafs al-Masri
Rifa'i Ahmad Taha Musa

Executive Order 13099 was issued under the same authority as E.O. 12947.

SDT Blockings under E.O. 12947 and E.O. 13099. Total current blockings by OFAC under the terrorism Executive orders are $24.4 million. These blockings involve assets of individuals added to the list of Specially Designated Terrorists subsequent to the publication of the first SDT list in January 1995. Accounts of agents acting on behalf of the terrorist organization HAMAS are blocked in U.S. banks; and $200,000 of their U.S. real estate holdings are blocked. On June 9, 1998, the Department of Justice seized both the real estate holdings and the bank accounts of an SDT under an asset forfeiture statute. The matter is still pending in the Northern District of Illinois.

Furthermore, a bank account belonging to Ramadan Abdullah SHALLAH, the head of the terrorist organization Palestinian

On April 24, 1996, Congress passed the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("Antiterrorism Act") (Tab 12) which in part prohibits persons within the U.S. or subject to the jurisdiction of the United States from knowingly providing material support or resources to a foreign terrorist organization.5 Pursuant to the Antiterrorism Act, on October 8, 1997, 30 organizations were designated by the Secretary of State.

in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General, as Foreign Terrorist Organizations ("FTOs")\(^7\) (Tab 1).

The 30 FTOs include the 12 Middle East terrorist organizations previously designated under Executive Order 12947 and 18 other foreign organizations in South America, Europe, and Asia. Subsequent to the State Department's designation, the Treasury Department published a duplicate list of the 30 FTOs (Tab 14) in the Federal Register\(^8\) in furtherance of section 303 of the Antiterrorism Act which was implemented in part by the Foreign Terrorist Organizations Sanctions Regulations (31 CFR Part 597) published on October 8, 1997 (62 Federal Register 52493).

Section 302 of the Antiterrorism Act requires U.S. financial institutions to block financial transactions involving a proposed FTO's assets pursuant to an order of the Secretary of the Treasury. Pursuant to Section 303 of the Antiterrorism Act, financial institutions must retain or control those funds in which an FTO has an interest and report that information to the Treasury Department.

FTO Blockings under the Antiterrorism Act. To date, the Treasury Department has not blocked any financial transactions under the Antiterrorism Act. All blockings of foreign terrorist assets to date have occurred in the SDT program under the authority of IEEPA and Executive Orders 12947 and 13099. The Treasury Department continues to work closely with other agencies in seeking information concerning possible assets within the

The President

Executive Order 12947—Prohibiting Transactions With Terrorists Who Threaten To Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process
Executive Order 12947 of January 23, 1995

Prohibiting Transactions With Terrorists Who Threaten To Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.) (IEEPA), the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.), and section 301 of title 3, United States Code,

I, WILLIAM J. CLINTON, President of the United States of America, find that grave acts of violence committed by foreign terrorists that disrupt the Middle East peace process constitute an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States, and hereby declare a national emergency to deal with that threat.

I hereby order:

Section 1. Except to the extent provided in section 203(b)(3) and (4) of IEEPA (50 U.S.C. 1702(b)(3) and (4)) and in regulations, orders, directives, or licenses that may be issued pursuant to this order, and notwithstanding any contract entered into or any license or permit granted prior to the effective date: (a) all property and interests in property of:

(i) the persons listed in the Annex to this order;

(ii) foreign persons designated by the Secretary of State, in coordination with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General, because they are found:

(A) to have committed, or to pose a significant risk of committing, acts of violence that have the purpose or effect of disrupting the Middle East peace process, or

(B) to assist in, sponsor, or provide financial, material, or technological support for, or services in support of, such acts of violence; and

(iii) persons determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, in coordination with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General, to be owned or controlled by, or to act for or on behalf of, any of the foregoing persons, that are in the United States, that hereafter come within the United States, or that hereafter come within the possession or control of United States persons, are blocked.

(b) any transaction or dealing by United States persons or within the United States in property or interests in property of the persons designated in or pursuant to this order is prohibited, including the making or receiving of any contribution of funds, goods, or services to or for the benefit of such persons;

(c) any transaction by any United States person or within the United States that evades or avoids, or has the purpose of evading or avoiding, or attempts to violate, any of the prohibitions set forth in this order, is prohibited.

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this order: (a) the term "person" means an individual or entity;

Background

On January 23, 1995, President Clinton signed Executive Order 12947, "Prohibiting Transactions with Terrorists Who Threaten To Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process" (the "Order"). The Order blocks all property subject to U.S. jurisdiction in which there is any interest of 12 terrorist organizations that threaten the Middle East peace process as identified in an Annex to the Order. The Order also blocks the property and interests in property subject to U.S. jurisdiction of persons designated by the Secretary of State, in coordination with the Secretary of Treasury and the Attorney General, who are found (1) to have committed, or to pose a significant risk of committing, acts of violence that have the purpose or effect of disrupting the Middle East peace process, or (2) to assist in, sponsor or provide financial, material or technological support for, or services in support of, such acts of violence. In addition, the Order blocks all property and interests in property subject to U.S. jurisdiction in which there is any interest of persons determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, in coordination with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General, to be owned or controlled by, or to act for or on behalf of, any other person designated pursuant to the Order (collectively "Specially Designated Terrorists" or "SDTs").

The Order prohibits any transaction or dealing by a United States person or within the United States in property or interests in property of SDTs, including the making or receiving of any contribution of funds, goods, or services to or for the benefit of such persons. This prohibition includes donations that are intended to relieve human suffering.

Designations of persons blocked pursuant to the Order are effective upon the date of determination by the Secretary of State or his delegate, or the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control acting under authority delegated by the Secretary of the Treasury. Public notice of blocking is effective upon the date of filing with the Federal Register, or upon prior actual notice.

Background
On January 24, 1995, President Clinton signed Executive Order 12947, "Prohibiting Transactions with Terrorists Who Threaten to Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process" (the "Order" or "E.O. 12947"). The Order blocks all property subject to U.S. jurisdiction in which there is any interest of 12 Middle East terrorist organizations included in an Annex to the Order. In addition, the Order blocks property and interests in property of persons designated by the Secretary of State, in coordination with the Secretary of Treasury and the Attorney General, who are found (1) to have committed or to pose a significant risk of disrupting the Middle East peace process, or (2) to assist in, sponsor or provide financial, material, or technological support for, or services in support of, such acts of violence. The order further blocks all property and interests in property subject to U.S. jurisdiction in which there is any interest of persons determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, in coordination with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General, to be owned or controlled by, or to act for or on behalf of any other person designated pursuant to the Order (collectively "Specially Designated Terrorists" or "SDTs").

The Order further prohibits any transaction or dealing by a United States person or within the United States in property or interests in property of SDTs, including the making or receiving of any contribution of funds, goods, or services to or for the benefit of such persons.

Designations of persons blocked pursuant to the Order are effective upon the date of determination by the Secretary of State or his delegate, or the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control acting under authority delegated by the Secretary of the Treasury. Public notice of blocking is effective upon the date of publication in the Federal Register, or upon prior actual notice.

The following name is added to the list of Specially Designated Terrorists:
SHALLAH, Dr. Ramadan Abdullah (a.k.a. ABDALLAH, Ramadan) (a.k.a. ABDULLAH, Dr. Ramadan) (a.k.a. SHALLAH, Ramadan Abdalla Mohamed); Damascus, Syria; Secretary General of the PALESTINIAN ISLAMIC JIHAD; DOB: January 1, 1958; POB: Gaza City, Gaza Strip; Passport No. 265 216 (Egypt); SSN 589-17-6824.

Dated: November 6, 1995.
R. Richard Newcomb,
Director, Office of Foreign Assets Control.

Approved: November 6, 1995.

Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary (Regulatory, Tariff & Law Enforcement).
Notice of January 18, 1996

Continuation of Emergency Regarding Terrorists Who Threaten To Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process

On January 23, 1995, by Executive Order No. 12947, I declared a national emergency to deal with the unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States constituted by grave acts of violence committed by foreign terrorists that disrupt the Middle East peace process. By Executive Order No. 12947 of January 23, 1995, I blocked the assets in the United States, or in the control of United States persons, of foreign terrorists who threaten to disrupt the Middle East peace process. I also prohibited transactions or dealings by United States persons in such property. Because terrorist activities continue to threaten the Middle East peace process and vital interests of the United States in the Middle East, the national emergency declared on January 23, 1995, and the measures that took effect on January 24, 1995, to deal with that emergency must continue in effect beyond January 23, 1996. Therefore, in accordance with section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)), I am continuing the national emergency with respect to foreign terrorists who threaten to disrupt the Middle East peace process.

This notice shall be published in the Federal Register and transmitted to the Congress.

Letter to Congressional Leaders on Continuation of the Emergency With Respect to Terrorists Who Threaten To Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process
January 18, 1996

Dear Mr. Speaker: (Dear Mr. President:)

Section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)) provides for the automatic termination of a national emergency unless, prior to the anniversary date of its declaration, the President publishes in the Federal Register and transmits to the Congress a notice stating that the emergency is to continue in effect beyond the anniversary date. In accordance with this provision, I have sent the enclosed notice, stating that the emergency declared with respect to grave acts of violence committed by foreign terrorists that disrupt the Middle East peace process is to continue in effect beyond January 23, 1996, to the Federal Register for publication.

The crisis with respect to the grave acts of violence committed by foreign terrorists that threaten to disrupt the Middle East peace process that lead to the declaration on January 23, 1995, of a national emergency has not been resolved. Terrorist groups continue to engage in activities with the purpose or effect of threatening the Middle East peace process, and that are hostile to U.S. interests in the region. Such actions threaten vital interests of the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States. For these reasons, I have determined that it is necessary to maintain in force the broad authorities necessary to deny any financial support from the United States for foreign terrorists that threaten to disrupt the Middle East peace process.

Sincerely,

William J. Clinton

Letter to Congressional Leaders Reporting on Terrorists Who Threaten the Middle East Peace Process
January 28, 1997

Dear Mr. Speaker: (Dear Mr. President:)

I hereby report to the Congress on the de­ developments concerning the national emergency with respect to terrorists who threaten to disrupt the Middle East peace process that was declared in Executive Order 12947 of January 23, 1995. This report is submitted pursuant to section 401(c) of the National Emergencies Act, 50 U.S.C. 1641(c), and section 204(c) of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (IEEPA), 50

U.S.C. 1703(c). Since the crisis with respect to the grave acts of violence committed by foreign terrorists that threaten the Middle East peace process has not been resolved, on January 21, 1997, I renewed this national emergency in accordance with section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C.

1622(d)).

1 On January 23, 1995, I signed Executive Order 12947, “Prohibiting Transactions wit1

Terrorists Who Threaten To Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process” (the “Order”)

(60 Fed. Reg. 5079, January 25, 1995). The order blocks all property subject to U.S. jurisdiction in which there is any interest of 12 terrorist organizations that threaten the Middle East peace process as identified in an Annex to the order. The order also blocks the property and interests in property subject to U.S. jurisdiction of persons designated by the Secretary of State, in coordination with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General, who are found (1) to have committed, or to pose a significant risk of committing, acts of violence that have the purpose or effect of disrupting the Middle East peace process, or (2) to assist in, sponsor, or provide financial, material, or technological support for, or services in support of, such acts of violence. In addition, the order blocks all property and interests in property subject to U.S. jurisdiction in which there is any interest of persons determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, in coordination with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General, to be owned or controlled by, or to act for or on behalf of, any other person designated pursuant to the order (collectively “Specially Designated Terrorists” or “SDTs”).

The order further prohibits any transaction or dealing by a United States person or within the United States in property or interests in property of SDTs, including the making or receiving of any contribution of funds, goods, or services to or for the benefit of such persons. This prohibition includes donations that are intended to relieve human suffering. Designations of persons blocked pursuant to the order are effective upon the date of determination by the Secretary of State or his delegate, or the Director of the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) acting under authority delegated by the Secretary of the Treasury. Public notice of blocking is effective upon the date of filing with the Federal Register or upon prior actual notice.

2 On January 25, 1995, the Department of the Treasury issued a notice listing persons blocked pursuant to Executive Order 12947 who have been designated by the President as terrorist organizations threatening the Middle East peace process or who have been found to be owned or controlled by, or to be acting for or on behalf of, these terrorist organizations (60 Fed. Reg. 5084, January 25, 1995). The notice identified 31 entities that act for or on behalf of the 12 Middle East terrorist organizations listed in the Annex to Executive Order 12947, as well as 18 individuals who are leaders or representatives of these groups. In addition the notice provides 9 name variations or pseudonyms used by the 18 individuals identified. The list identifies blocked persons who have been found to have committed, or to pose a risk of committing, acts of violence that have the purpose of disrupting the Middle East peace process or to have assisted in, sponsored, or provided financial, material, or technological support for, or service in support of, such acts of violence, or are owned or controlled by, or to act for or on behalf of other blocked persons.

The Department of the Treasury issued three additional notices adding the names of three individuals, as well as their pseudonouns, to the List of SDTs (60 Fed. Reg.

41152, August 11, 1995; 60 Fed. Reg. 44932,
August 29, 1995; and 60 Fed. Reg. 58435, November 27, 1995). The OFAC, in coordination with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General, is continuing to expand the list of Specially Designated Terrorists, including both organizations and individuals, as additional information is developed.

3. On February 2, 1996, the OFAC issued the Terrorism Sanctions Regulations (the "TSRs") (61 Fed. Reg. 3805, February 2, 1996). The TSRs implement the President's declaration of a national emergency and imposition of sanctions against certain persons whose acts of violence have the purpose or effect of disrupting the Middle East peace process.

4. The expenses incurred by the Federal Government in the 6-month period from July 23, 1996, through January 22, 1997, that are directly attributable to the exercise of powers and authorities conferred by the declaration of the national emergency with respect to organizations that disrupt the Middle East peace process are estimated at approximately $285,000.

5. Executive Order 12947 provides this Administration with a new tool for combating fundraising in this country on behalf of organizations that use terror to undermine the Middle East peace process. The order makes it harder for such groups to finance these criminal activities by cutting off their access to sources of support in the United States and to U.S. financial facilities. It is also intended to reach charitable contributions to designated organizations and individuals to preclude diversion of such donations to terrorist activities.

In addition, comprehensive counterterrorism legislation was enacted on April 24, 1996, that would strengthen our ability to prevent terrorist acts, identify those who carry them out, and bring them to justice. The combination of Executive Order 12947 and the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 demonstrate the United States determination to confront and combat those who would seek to destroy the Middle East peace process, and our commitment to the global fight against terrorism.

I shall continue to exercise the powers at my disposal to apply economic sanctions against extremists seeking to destroy the hopes of peaceful coexistence between Arabs and Israelis as long as these measures are appropriate, and will continue to report periodically to the Congress on significant developments pursuant to 50 U.S.C. 1703(c).

Sincerely,

William J. Clinton

Notice of January 21, 1998—Continuation of Emergency Regarding Terrorists Who Threaten To Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process
Continuation of Emergency Regarding Terrorists Who Threaten To Disrupt the Middle East Peace Process

On January 23, 1995, by Executive Order 12947, I declared a national emergency to deal with the unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States constituted by grave acts of violence committed by foreign terrorists that disrupt the Middle East peace process. By Executive Order 12947 of January 23, 1995, I blocked the assets in the United States, or in the control of United States persons, of foreign terrorists who threaten to disrupt the Middle East peace process. I also prohibited transactions or dealings by United States persons in such property. In 1996 and 1997, I transmitted notices of the continuation of this national emergency to the Congress and the Federal Register. Last year's notice of continuation was published in the Federal Register on January 22, 1997. Because terrorist activities continue to threaten the Middle East peace process and vital interests of the United States in the Middle East, the national emergency declared on January 23, 1995, and the measures that took effect on January 24, 1995, to deal with that emergency must continue in effect beyond January 23, 1998. Therefore, in accordance with section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)), I am continuing the national emergency with respect to foreign terrorists who threaten to disrupt the Middle East peace process.

This notice shall be published in the Federal Register and transmitted to the Congress.

On August 20, 1998, by Executive Order 13099, I identified four additional persons, including Usama bin Laden, that threaten to disrupt the Middle East peace process. I have annually transmitted notices of the continuation of this national emergency to the Congress and the Federal Register. TITLE III—INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM PROHIBITIONS

Subtitle A—Prohibition on International Terrorist Fundraising

SEC. 301. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

(1) international terrorism is a serious and deadly problem that threatens the vital interests of the United States;

(2) the Constitution confers upon Congress the power to punish crimes against the law of nations and to carry out the treaty obligations of the United States, and therefore Congress may by law impose penalties relating to the provision of material support to foreign organizations engaged in terrorist activity;

(3) the power of the United States over immigration and naturalization permits the exclusion from the United States of persons belonging to international terrorist organizations;

(4) international terrorism affects the interstate and foreign commerce of the United States by harming international trade and market stability, and limiting international travel by United States citizens as well as foreign visitors to the United States;

(5) international cooperation is required for an effective response to terrorism, as demonstrated by the numerous multilateral conventions in force providing universal prosecutive jurisdiction over persons involved in a variety of terrorist acts, including hostage taking, murder of an internationally protected person, and aircraft piracy and sabotage;

(6) some foreign terrorist organizations, acting through affiliated groups or individuals, raise significant funds within the United States, or use the United States as a conduit for the receipt of funds raised in other nations; and

(7) foreign organizations that engage in terrorist activity are so tainted by their criminal conduct that any contribution to such an organization facilitates that conduct.

(b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this subtitle is to provide the Federal Government the fullest possible basis, consistent with the Constitution, to prevent persons within the United States, or subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, from providing material support or resources to foreign organizations that engage in terrorist activities.

The procedural requirements of paragraphs (2) and (3) shall apply to a redesignation under this subparagraph.

"(5) REVOCATION BY ACT OF CONGRESS.—The Congress, by an Act of Congress, may block or revoke a designation made under paragraph (1).

"(6) REVOCATION BASED ON CHANGE IN CIRCUMSTANCES.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may revoke a designation made under paragraph (1) if the Secretary finds that—"(i) the circumstances that were the basis for the designation have changed in such a manner as to warrant revocation of the designation; or

"(ii) the national security of the United States warrants a revocation of the designation.

"(B) PROCEDURE.—The procedural requirements of paragraphs (2) through (4) shall apply to a revocation under this paragraph.

The President

Executive Order 13067—Blocking Sudanese Government Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Sudan
Executive Order 13067 of November 3, 1997

Blocking Sudanese Government Property and Prohibiting Transactions With Sudan

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.) (IEEPA), the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.), and section 301 of title 3, United States Code:

I, WILLIAM J. CLINTON, President of the United States of America, find that the policies and actions of the Government of Sudan, including continued support for international terrorism; ongoing efforts to destabilize neighboring governments; and the prevalence of human rights violations, including slavery and the denial of religious freedom, constitute an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States, and hereby declare a national emergency to deal with that threat.

I hereby order:

Section 1. Except to the extent provided in section 203(b) of IEEPA (50 U.S.C. 1702(b)) and in regulations, orders, directives, or licenses that may be issued pursuant to this order, all property and interests in property of the Government of Sudan that are in the United States, that hereafter come within the United States, or that hereafter come within the possession or control of United States persons, including their overseas branches, are blocked.

Sec. 2. The following are prohibited, except to the extent provided in section 203(b) of IEEPA (50 U.S.C. 1702(b)) and in regulations, orders, directives, or licenses that may be issued pursuant to this order:

(a) the importation into the United States of any goods or services of Sudanese origin, other than information or informational materials;

(b) the exportation or reexportation, directly or indirectly, to Sudan of any goods, technology (including technical data, software, or other information), or services from the United States or by a United States person, wherever located, or requiring the issuance of a license by a Federal agency, except for donations of articles intended to relieve human suffering, such as food, clothing, and medicine;

(c) the facilitation by a United States person, including but not limited to brokering activities, of the exportation or reexportation of goods, technology, or services from Sudan to any destination, or to Sudan from any location;

(d) the performance by any United States person of any contract, including a financing contract, in support of an industrial, commercial, public utility, or governmental project in Sudan;

(e) the grant or extension of credits or loans by any United States person to the Government of Sudan;

(f) any transaction by a United States person relating to transportation of cargo to or from Sudan; the provision of transportation of cargo to or from the United States by any Sudanese person or any vessel or aircraft of Sudanese registration; or the sale in the United States by any person holding authority under subtitle 7 of title 49, United States Code, of any transportation of cargo by air that includes any stop in Sudan; and
(g) any transaction by any United States person or within the United States that evades or avoids, or has the purpose of evading or avoiding, or attempts to violate, any of the prohibitions set forth in this order.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this order shall prohibit:

(a) transactions for the conduct of the official business of the Federal Government or the United Nations by employees thereof; or

(b) transactions in Sudan for journalistic activity by persons regularly employed in such capacity by a news-gathering organization.

Sec. 4. For the purposes of this order:

(a) the term "person" means an individual or entity;

(b) the term "entity" means a partnership, association, trust, joint venture, corporation, or other organization;

(c) the term "United States person" means any United States citizen, permanent resident alien, entity organized under the laws of the United States (including foreign branches), or any person in the United States; and

(d) the term "Government of Sudan" includes the Government of Sudan, its agencies, instrumentalities and controlled entities, and the Central Bank of Sudan.

Sec. 5. The Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State and, as appropriate, other agencies, is hereby authorized to take such actions, including the promulgation of rules and regulations, and to employ all powers granted to me by IEEPA, as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this order. The Secretary of the Treasury may redelegate any of these functions to other officers and agencies of the United States Government. All agencies of the United States Government are hereby directed to take all appropriate measures within their authority to carry out the provisions of this order.

Sec. 6. Nothing contained in this order shall create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable by any party against the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, its officers or employees, or any other person.

Sec. 7. (a) This order shall take effect at 12:01 a.m. eastern standard time on November 4, 1997, except that trade transactions under contracts in force as of the effective date of this order may be performed pursuant to their terms through 12:01 a.m. eastern standard time on December 4, 1997, and letters of credit and other financing agreements for such underlying trade transactions may be performed pursuant to their terms.

Background
In furtherance of section 303 of the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996, Public Law 104-132, 110 Stat. 1214-1319 (the "Act"), implemented in part by the Foreign Terrorist Organizations Sanctions Regulations, 31 CFR part 597 (62 FR 52493, Oct. 15, 1997—"the "Regulations") the Office of Foreign Assets Control is adding the following 30 foreign terrorist organizations ("FTOs") to appendix A to 31 CFR chapter V.

Section 303 of the Act (new 18 U.S.C. 2339B), as implemented in § 597.201 of the Regulations, requires financial institutions in possession or control of funds in which a foreign terrorist organization or its agent has an interest to block such funds except as authorized pursuant to the Regulations, and to file reports in accordance with the Regulations. Financial institutions that violate 18 U.S.C. 2339B(a)(2) and the Regulations are subject to civil penalties administered by the Treasury Department.

These 30 FTOs were designated by the Secretary of the Treasury in a notice published in the Federal Register on October 8, 1997 (62 FR 52650) pursuant to section 302 of the Act (new 8 U.S.C. 1189), which authorizes the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General, to designate organizations meeting stated requirements as FTOs, with prior notification to Congress of the intent to designate. Appendix A contains the names of blocked persons, specially designated nationals, specially designated terrorists, and specially designated narcotics traffickers designated pursuant to the various economic sanctions programs administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (62 FR 34934, June 27, 1997).

Finally, the entry "Akram Al-Ogaily" is removed from appendices A and B as a specially designated national of Iraq, since he has been determined to no longer meet the criteria for designation under sanctions administered against Iraq.

Since this rule involves a foreign affairs function, the provisions of Executive Order 12866 and the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553), requiring notice of proposed rulemaking, opportunity for public participation, and delay in effective date, are inapplicable. Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required for this rule, the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601-612) does not apply.

1. The notes to the appendices to chapter V are revised to read as follows:

APPENDICES TO CHAPTER

BILLING CODE 4810–25–P

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

40 CFR Parts 85 and 89

[AMS–FRL–5939–5]

Control of Air Pollution: Emission Standards for New Nonroad Compression-Ignition Engines at or Above 37 Kilowatts; Preemption of State Regulation for Nonroad Engine and Vehicle Standards; Amendments to Rules

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Direct final rule.

SUMMARY: This direct final rulemaking, consistent with an order and opinion from the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, amends EPA’s regulations setting emission standards for large (at or above 37 kilowatts) nonroad compression ignition engines and EPA’s regulations establishing procedures for EPA authorization of California nonroad emission standards. Specifically, EPA is withdrawing portions of an interpretive rule which set forth the Agency’s position on the Clean Air Act (Act) regarding the status of certain internal combustion engines manufactured before the effective date of the final rulemaking promulgating EPA’s definition of nonroad engine. Additionally, consistent with the D.C. Circuit opinion, EPA also is amending the remaining text of this interpretive rule, as well as EPA’s regulations issued under section 209(e) of the Act regarding the Agency’s California nonroad standards authorization process, to clarify that California must seek authorization from EPA prior to enforcing standards and other requirements relating to emissions from any nonroad vehicles or engines, and not just new nonroad vehicles and engines, which was the original language used in these regulations.

DATES: This direct final rule is effective on March 2, 1998 unless notice is received by January 29, 1998 that any person wishes to submit adverse comments and/or request a hearing. Should EPA receive such notice, EPA will publish a timely document in the Federal Register withdrawing this direct final rule. Any party who sends EPA notice of intent to submit adverse comments must in turn submit the adverse comments by March 2, 1998, unless a hearing is requested. Any party objecting to this direct final rule, at the time it notifies EPA of its intent to submit adverse comments, can request EPA to hold a public hearing on this action. If a hearing is requested, it will take place on March 2, 1998, and interested parties will have an additional 30 days after the hearing (until March 30, 1998) to submit comments on any information presented at the hearing. Because no hearing will occur absent a request for one, interested parties should contact Robert M. Doyle at the number listed below after January 29, 1998 to determine whether a hearing will take place.

ADDRESSES: Written comments should be submitted (in duplicate if possible) to: Air Docket Section (6102), Attention: Docket No. A–91–24, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, 401 M Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20460, or hand-delivered to the Air Docket at the above address, in Room M–1500, Waterside Mall. A copy of written comments should also be submitted to Robert M. Doyle at the address below.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Regulated Entities

Entities potentially regulated by this direct final rule are the California Air Resources Board and other state air quality agencies. Regulated categories and entities include:

This table is not intended to be exhaustive, but rather provides a guide for readers regarding entities likely to be regulated by this action. This table lists the types of entities that EPA is now aware could potentially be regulated by this action. Other types of entities not listed in the table could also be regulated. If you have questions regarding the applicability of this action to a particular product, consult the person listed in the preceding FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section.

II. Obtaining Electronic Copies of Documents

Electronic copies of the preamble and the regulatory text of this direct final rule are available via the Internet on the Office of Mobile Sources (OMS) Home Page (http://www.epa.gov/OMSWVW/). Users can find these documents and other nonroad engine and vehicle related information and documents by accessing the OMS Home Page and looking at the path entitled “Nonroad engines and vehicles.” This service is free of charge, except for any cost you already incur for Internet connectivity. The official Federal Register version is made available on the day of publication on the primary Web site (http://www.epa.gov/docs/fedrgstr/EPA–AIR/).

Please note that due to differences between the software used to develop the documents and the software into which the documents may be downloaded, changes in format, page length, etc., may occur.

III. Legal Authority and Background

Authority for the actions set forth in this direct final rule is granted to EPA by sections 209, 213, and 301 of the Clean Air Act as amended (42 U.S.C. 7543, 7547, and 7601).

A. Amendments and Redesignation of Appendix Containing Interpretive Rule on Date and Scope of Nonroad Preemption

On May 17, 1993, EPA proposed rules setting standards for emissions from nonroad compression ignition engines at or above 37 kilowatts (approximately 50 horsepower) in power (large nonroad engine rule).! In this NPRM, EPA was faced with the question (among many issues) of the manner and the extent to which states could regulate nonroad engines, which some states and localities previously had regulated as stationary sources. EPA noted that while emissions from nonroad engines are excluded from the Act’s section 302(z) definition of stationary source, the exclusion would apply only to those nonroad internal combustion engines that are manufactured after the effective

1 58 FR 28809 (May 17, 1993).

2 Section 302(z) states that the ‘term stationary source’ means generally any source of air pollutant except those emissions resulting directly from an internal combustion engine for transportation purposes or from a nonroad engine or nonroad vehicle as defined in section 218.”
