THE OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL PRESENTS:

AN INTERNATIONAL TRADE SYMPOSIUM

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2012
WASHINGTON, DC

You are cordially invited to participate in a special International Trade Symposium hosted and sponsored by The U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control on Tuesday, February 14th at the historic National Press Club in Washington, DC. The Press Club is located at 529 14th Street NW, Washington, DC 20045. This full day event will help the international trade community to better understand, and successfully comply with, U.S. economic sanctions. OFAC will host a separate event for the financial community in mid-March.

The International Trade Symposium will feature presentations by, and discussions with, key OFAC personnel on topics such as:

- ❖ Licensing procedures and guidance
- ❖ Compliance with U.S. economic and trade sanctions
- ❖ Enforcement guidelines and enforcement actions
- ❖ Recent sanctions changes and challenges

In addition to formal presentations, OFAC staff will be available throughout the day for individual questions and ad hoc roundtable discussions on issues unique to the trade community.

The event is free but advance registration is required. If you wish to attend, please click on this link and follow the instructions on the registration site. Note: Since we expect a large turnout, we ask that you initially restrict your attendance to two persons per company/organization. If we have seats remaining in the weeks immediately prior to the event, we will reopen the registration.

If you love your business, join us on February 14th for this unique Valentine's Day gift from OFAC!
