Executive Order 13599, “Blocking Property of the Government of Iran and Iranian Financial Institutions”

GENERAL LICENSE C-1

Funds transfers related to earthquake relief efforts to or for the benefit of persons in Iran authorized until November 19, 2012.

(a) General License C, dated August 21, 2012, is replaced and superseded in its entirety by this General License C-1.

(b) Subject to the conditions and restrictions of paragraphs (c), (d), (e), and (g) below, effective August 21, 2012, U.S.-based non-governmental organizations classified as tax-exempt pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (hereinafter, “U.S. NGOs”) are authorized for a 90-day period to collect donations of funds to be used in direct support of humanitarian relief and reconstruction activities being undertaken in Iran in direct response to the earthquake of August 11, 2012, in the locations affected by that earthquake, and to transfer those funds to Iran or for or on behalf of a person in Iran consistent with 31 C.F.R. § 560.516(a) and (b).<sup>1</sup>

(c) Transfers of funds by a single U.S. NGO may not exceed USD$300,000 in the aggregate over the 90-day period.

<sup>1</sup> Consistent with section 560.516(a) and (b) of the Iranian Transactions Regulations, 31 C.F.R. Part 560, and General License A, the transfer of funds may not be by, to, or through any of the following: (1) a person whose property and interests in property are blocked pursuant to the Weapons of Mass Destruction Proliferators Sanctions Regulations, 31 C.F.R. part 544, or the Global Terrorism Sanctions Regulations, 31 C.F.R. part 594; or (2) a person whose property and interests in property are blocked pursuant to any other part of 31 C.F.R. chapter V, or any Executive order, except a person whose property and interests in property are blocked solely pursuant to Executive Order 13599 (“Blocking Property of the Government of Iran and Iranian Financial Institutions”).

(d) A United States depository institution or United States registered broker or dealer in securities that is a U.S. person and that is processing the funds transfers pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) above may rely on the originator of the funds transfer with regard to compliance with paragraphs (b) and (c) above, provided that the United States depository institution or United States registered broker or dealer in securities does not know or have reason to know that the funds transfer is not in compliance with paragraphs (b) and (c) above.<sup>2</sup>

(e) Reports must be submitted by U.S. NGOs upon the first funds transfer, and thereafter on September 21, 2012, October 21, 2012, November 21, 2012, and December 21, 2012, providing information about all funds transfers to Iran or for or on behalf of a person in Iran, pursuant to this general license, including the dollar amount of the transfers, the recipient(s) of the funds, and the intended use of the funds, to the Office of Foreign Assets Control, Attn: Licensing Division, U.S. Department of the Treasury, 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20220, and to the Office of Sanctions Policy and Implementation, U.S. Department of State, 2201 C Street, NW, Washington, DC 20520.

(f) Example. A U.S.-based, tax-exempt non-governmental organization may collect donations from U.S. persons to be used in direct support of humanitarian relief and reconstruction activities being undertaken in Iran in direct response to the earthquake of August 11, 2012. A United States depository institution may transmit the funds collected by the U.S.-based, tax-exempt non-governmental organization to an entity in Iran engaged in humanitarian relief and reconstruction activities being undertaken in response to the earthquake, provided the funds are to be used in direct support of such activities and are not for the benefit of any person, such as the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps, whose property and interests in
