DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON, D.C.

UNDER SECRETARY

OFFICE OF FOREIGN ASSETS CONTROL

Executive Order 13722 of March 15, 2016
Blocking Property of the Government of North Korea and the Workers' Party of Korea, and Prohibiting Certain Transactions with Respect to North Korea

GENERAL LICENSE NO. 1-A

North Korean Mission to the United Nations and Employees of the United Nations

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (c), the provision of goods or services in the United States to the official mission of the Government of North Korea to the United Nations (the mission) and payment for such goods or services are authorized, provided that:

(1) The goods or services are for the conduct of the official business of the mission, or for personal use of the employees of the mission, their families, or persons forming part of their household, and are not for resale;

(2) The transaction does not involve the purchase, sale, financing, or refinancing of real property;

(3) The transaction is not otherwise prohibited by law; and

(4) Funds transfers to or from the mission or the employees of the mission, their families, or persons forming part of their household are conducted through an account at a U.S. financial institution specifically licensed by the Office of Foreign Assets Control.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c), the provision of goods or services in the United States to the employees of the mission or of the United Nations, their families, or persons forming part of their household, and payment for such goods or services, are authorized, provided that:

(1) The goods or services are for personal use of the employees of the mission or of the United Nations, their families, or persons forming part of their household, and are not for resale;

(2) The transaction is not otherwise prohibited by law; and

(3) Funds transfers to or from employees of the mission, their families, or persons forming part of their household are conducted through an account at a U.S. financial institution specifically licensed by the Office of Foreign Assets Control.

(c) This general license does not authorize U.S. financial institutions to open and operate accounts for, or extend credit to, the mission of the Government of North Korea or to the employees of the mission, their families, or persons forming part of their household.

Note to paragraph (c) of General License 1-A: U.S. financial institutions are required to obtain specific licenses to operate accounts for, or extend credit to, the mission or to the employees of the mission, their families, or persons forming part of their household.

(d) Effective December 20, 2016, General License 1-A replaces and supersedes in its entirety General License 1, dated March 16, 2016.

Note to General License No. 1-A: Nothing in this general license authorizes the transfer of any property to the Government of North Korea, or any other person whose property and interests in property are blocked pursuant to Executive Order 13551 of August 30, 2010, Executive Order 13687 of January 2, 2015, or Executive Order 13722 of March 15, 2016 ("Blocking Property of the Government of North Korea and the Workers' Party of Korea, and Prohibiting Certain Transactions With Respect to North Korea"), other than the mission, nor does this general license authorize any debit to a blocked account.
