

WAIVER OF RIGHT TO REMAIN SILENT AND OF
RIGHT TO ADVICE OF COUNSEL
(MIRANDA and GARRITY WARNING)
FEDERAL EMPLOYEE

STATEMENT OF RIGHTS

Before we ask you any questions, it is my duty to advise you of your rights:

1. You have the right to remain silent.
2. Anything you say can be used against you in court, or other proceedings.
3. You have the right to consult with an attorney before making any statement or answering any question, and you may have him present with you during the questioning.
4. You may have an attorney appointed by the U.S. Magistrate or the court to represent you if cannot afford or otherwise obtain one.
5. If you decide to answer questions now with or without a lawyer, you still have the right to stop the questioning at any time, or to stop the questioning for the purpose of consulting a lawyer.
6. As a Federal employee, you are further advised that no disciplinary action will be taken against you solely for remaining silent or refusing to answer questions.

However,

You may waive your right to advice of counsel and your right to remain silent, and you may answer questions or make a statement without consulting a lawyer if you so desire.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

I understand the statement of my rights above as they have been read and explained to me and I waive them freely and voluntarily, without threat or intimidation, and without any promise of reward or immunity.

I was taken into custody at _____ (time), on _____ (date), and have signed this document at _____ (time), on _____ (date).
